INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS FORM 6-K REPORT

Notice of Failure to Satisfy a Continued New York Stock Exchange Listing Rule

On May 16, 2018, Aegean Marine Petroleum Network Inc. (the "Company" or "Aegean") received an expected notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") stating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements under the timely filing criteria outlined in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual due to the delay in filing the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 (the "Form 20-F").

As previously disclosed, the Company reported in a Form 12b-25 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on April 30, 2018 that it was unable to file its 2017 Form 20-F without unreasonable effort or expense due to the need for additional time to complete the Company's consolidated financial statements to be included therein, and the related assessment of internal controls over financial reporting.

In connection with the Company's internal review of its financial reporting, the audit committee of the Company's board of directors (the "Audit Committee") is conducting a review of certain matters relevant to the preparation and completion of the Company's annual financial statements. The Company will not be in a position to file its Form 20-F until after the Audit Committee completes its review.

At this time, the Company cannot predict with certainty when the above-referenced review of the 2017 financial statements will be completed. The Company does not expect to make further comment regarding such review until its conclusion.

On March 7, 2018, the Company issued a press release (the "Earnings Release") containing its preliminary unaudited operating results for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017. Until the above-mentioned review has been completed, the Company does not expect that it will be in a position to determine if there will be significant changes as a result of such review to the results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2017 reflected in the Earnings Release, or if any accounting charges, adjustments or impairments will be required.

In accordance with NYSE rules, the Company has contacted the NYSE to discuss the status of the Form 20-F and issued a press release on May 22, 2018 pertaining to, among other things, the late filing, which has been included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 6-K.

The NYSE informed the Company that under NYSE rules, the Company has six months from the due date to file its Form 20-F with the SEC. If the Company fails to file the late report and all other periodic reports with subsequent due dates within six months of the filing due date of the late report, the NYSE may, in its sole discretion, allow the Company's securities to remain listed for up to an additional six months depending on certain circumstances. The Company may regain compliance with the NYSE listing standards at any time prior to such date by filing its Form 20-F with the SEC. The NYSE notice also reserves the right of the NYSE to commence delisting proceedings at any time if circumstances warrant.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Matters discussed in this report may constitute forward-looking statements. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended (the "PSLRA") provides safe harbor protections for forward-looking statements in order to encourage companies to provide prospective information about their business. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts. The Company desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the PSLRA and is including this cautionary statement in connection therewith. Such statements that are not historical facts are hereby identified as forward-looking statements and are intended to be covered by the safe harbor provisions of the PSLRA and can be identified by the use of the words "believe," "expect," "predict," "project," "potential," "estimate," "anticipate," "should," "intend," "may," "will," and similar expressions or variations of such words, or by discussion of future financial results and events, strategy or risks and uncertainties, trends and conditions in the Company's business and competitive strengths, all of which involve risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements in this report are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, Company management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in the Company's records and other data available from third parties. Although the Company believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies that are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond the Company's control, the Company cannot assure you that it will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections.

Where, in any forward-looking statement, management expresses an expectation or belief as to future results or actions, there can be no assurance that the statement of expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished. The Company's actual results may differ materially from its expectations, plans or projections. Forward-looking statements are only predictions and estimates, which are inherently subject to risks, trends and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's ability to control or predict with accuracy and some of which might not even anticipate. There can be no assurance that the Company will achieve its expectations and it does not assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the forward-looking statements. Future events and actual results, financial and otherwise, may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements in this report.

Many factors could cause actual future events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this report, including but not limited to: the Company's ability to manage growth, the Company's ability to maintain its business in light of its proposed business and location expansion or other changes in its business, the Company's ability to obtain double hull secondhand bunkering tankers, the outcome of legal, tax or regulatory proceedings to which the Company may become a party, adverse conditions in the shipping or the marine fuel supply industries, the Company's ability to retain its key suppliers and key customers, material disruptions in the availability or supply of crude oil or refined petroleum products, changes in the market price of petroleum, including the volatility of spot pricing, increased levels of competition, compliance or lack of compliance with various environmental and other applicable laws and regulations, the Company's ability to collect accounts receivable, changes in the political, economic or regulatory conditions in the markets in which the Company operates, and the world in general, the Company's failure to hedge certain financial risks associated with its business, the Company's ability to maintain its current tax treatments and its failure to comply with restrictions in its credit agreements and other factors. Please see the Company's filings with the SEC for a more complete discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of the Company.

All forward-looking statements included in this report are based upon information available to the Company as of the date of this report. Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and the Company undertakes no obligations to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.

Aegean Marine Petroleum Network Inc. Provides Business Updates

Announces Appointment of Donald Moore as Chairman of the Board

Announces Continuing Strategic and Operational Review to Maximize Return on Capital

Announces Plans to Move Corporate Headquarters and Establish Independent Corporate Identity

Reports Stable Preliminary First Quarter Operating Metrics

Announces Receipt of Expected NYSE Notice Regarding Late Form 20-F Filing

NEW YORK, May 22, 2018 -- Aegean Marine Petroleum Network Inc. (NYSE:ANW) ("Aegean" or the "Company"), a leading international marine fuel logistics company, today provided updates on its business and issued the following statement:

Aegean has reinvigorated its Board of Directors with the addition of three new independent directors, and today announced the appointment of Donald Moore to serve as Chairman of the Board.

The Board of Directors has also directed management to conduct a comprehensive strategic and operational review focused on maximizing profitability and return on capital. This includes an evaluation of the Company's physical assets, existing footprint, and the capital efficiency of every business activity in which the Company is engaged and each port in which it operates.

Following the recent termination of the Company's Consulting Agreement with Dimitris Melisanidis, the Company is planning to relocate its principal offices from the current location in a building owned and operated by Mr. Melisanidis. The Company expects the office relocation and related organizational changes to result in significant cost savings.

Separately, Aegean recorded stable operating results in the first quarter of 2018 as network volumes and gross spreads were largely consistent with the fourth quarter of 2017, reflecting competitive industry conditions and the continued decision to restrain volumes in ports and lines of business with lower margin profiles. Aegean's business continues to generate positive cash flow and the management team remains focused on continuing to serve the Company's strong global customer base.

Aegean continues to work through its annual reporting process, which includes a thorough review by the recently recomposed audit committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") and the Company's recently appointed Chief Financial Officer. The Company and its advisors are working diligently to complete these reviews as soon as possible. The Company is pleased to have the continued support of its lenders and other stakeholders in connection with this process.

Aegean is committed to being a leader in the physical supply and marketing of marine fuel and is confident that its Board of Directors and management team are taking the right actions to position the Company for long-term success.

Aegean also announced that it has received an expected notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") stating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements under the timely filing criteria outlined in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual due to the delay in filing the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 (the "2017 Form 20-F").

As previously disclosed, the Company was unable to file its 2017 Form 20-F without unreasonable effort or expense due to the need for additional time to complete the Company's consolidated financial statements to be included therein, and the related assessment of internal controls over financial reporting. In connection with the Company's internal review of its financial reporting, the Audit Committee is conducting a review of certain matters relevant to the preparation and completion of the Company's annual financial statements. The Company will not be in a position to file its 2017 Form 20-F until after the Audit Committee completes its review. At this time, the Company cannot predict with certainty when the above-referenced review of the 2017 financial statements will be completed. The Company does not expect to make further comment regarding such review until its conclusion.

In accordance with NYSE rules, Aegean has contacted the NYSE to discuss the status of the late filing and is issuing this required press release. The NYSE informed Aegean that, under NYSE rules, Aegean will have six months from the 2017 Form 20-F due date to file the 2017 Form 20-F with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Aegean can regain compliance with the NYSE listing standards at any time prior to that date by filing its 2017 Form 20-F.

About Donald Moore

Mr. Moore has over 40 years of experience in the financial services industry at Morgan Stanley, most recently as Chairman of Morgan Stanley Group (Europe) from 2000-2016 where he was involved in over 500 billion euros ($552 billion) worth of transactions throughout Europe, working closely with governments, institutions and corporations on strategic issues, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings and equity financings.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Matters discussed or referenced in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides safe harbor protections for forward-looking statements in order to encourage companies to provide prospective information about their business. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts.

The Company desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and is including this cautionary statement in connection with this safe harbor legislation. The words "believe," "intend," "anticipate," "estimate," "project," "forecast," "plan," "potential," "may," "should," "expect" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made or referenced in this press release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, Company management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in the Company's records and other data available from third parties. Although the Company believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond the Company's control, the Company cannot assure you that it will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections.

In addition to these important factors, other important factors that, in the Company's view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include the Company's ability to manage growth, the Company's ability to maintain its business in light of its proposed business and location expansion or other changes in its business, the Company's ability to obtain double hull secondhand bunkering tankers, the outcome of legal, tax or regulatory proceedings to which the Company may become a party, adverse conditions in the shipping or the marine fuel supply industries, the Company's ability to retain its key suppliers and key customers, material disruptions in the availability or supply of crude oil or refined petroleum products, changes in the market price of petroleum, including the volatility of spot pricing, increased levels of competition, compliance or lack of compliance with various environmental and other applicable laws and regulations, the Company's ability to collect accounts receivable, changes in the political, economic or regulatory conditions in the markets in which the Company operates, and the world in general, the Company's failure to hedge certain financial risks associated with its business, the Company's ability to maintain its current tax treatments and the Company's failure to comply with restrictions or covenants in its debt agreements and other factors. Please see the Company's filings with the SEC for a more complete discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties.
